

KABOOM! Arts After School - Call for Artistic Director

Description

The Tett Centre for Creativity and Learning and the Boys and Girls Club of Kingston are partnering to offer an exciting multi-disciplinary program to guide youth through artistic outlets and empowered self-discovery while building skills, connecting with the history of the building and region and engaging with the arts sector of Kingston. Titled "Kaboom! Arts After School" this year long program specifically for youth between the ages of 13-18 will run February to December 2017, once a week after school. Youth from diverse backgrounds, introduced by the Boys & Girls Club, will have the opportunity to learn from and create alongside local professional artists from many of the disciplines housed in the Tett Centre's eight arts organizations as well as drawing leadership from the eight Creativity Studios and community artists from Kingston and beyond. A designated heritage building with a vibrant history, located on the shores of Lake Ontario, The Tett Community Arts and Culture Hub is a perfect location to bring a youth focused, multi-arts program to life.
