

CALL FOR PROPOSALS 2020

Calling all artists, creatives, and art educators! Are you an expert in your field? Are you looking to share your passions? The Tett Centre for Creativity & Learning is currently looking for a variety of creative workshops and classes to include in our upcoming Tett Programming.

This opportunity is open to artists working in ALL disciplines, who have experience teaching to people of various ages and abilities and welcome the opportunity to explore the arts with diverse groups. The Creativity Series workshops are offered to participants who want to discover new mediums, learn new skills, and develop their ideas. Please note, we accept programming proposals for all ages and experience levels.

Applicants must have previous teaching experience, produce individual work that shows mastery of technique or medium, and have a strong reference check.

HOW TO APPLY:

- Complete an Application Form (below)
- Resume or Artist CV (including 3 references)
- Artwork Samples (3-5 attached digital files)
- Cover Letter, including your personal interest statement, which may include:
 - Why you want to work with the Tett
 - Possible ideas about courses, workshops, or demonstrations you may like to undertake at the Tett
 - Your experience as a teacher and artist

Please email and submit all applications to Danielle Folkerts at arts@tettcentre.org.

DATES TO CONSIDER: Applications will be considered on an ongoing basis.

Vision

Connecting people and communities through the arts.

Mission

A welcoming destination where artists, arts organizations, and the community come together to explore, create, and be inspired.

Mandate

The Tett Centre for Creativity and Learning is a Not-for-Profit, charitable organization that operates an historic city-owned building on Kingston's waterfront. We provide professionally equipped and affordable space to artists and arts organizations for artistic creation.

We are home to eight tenant arts organizations, eight resident artist studios, and four multi-use rentable public spaces. We are a dynamic arts hub that coordinates and creates high-quality, accessible, arts-focused programming for all levels of artistic abilities and experience.

Our partners include artists, arts and community organizations, The Isabel Bader Centre for the Performing Arts, and the City of Kingston's Department of Cultural Services.

As a unique cultural landmark for Kingston residents and area visitors, we enhance learning and public participation in the arts.
